

Warren, Ohio – Congressman Tim Ryan (OH-17) announced that Heather McMahon has been named as his Communications Director. Ms. McMahon will be Congressman Ryan’s point person for all media relations and will be working out of the Warren office. Ms. McMahon joins Pat Lowry and Erick Sanchez, current members of the Congressman’s communications team.

“I am pleased to have Heather working as part of my team,” said Ryan. “She brings a great deal of knowledge about local issues of concern and will be a tremendous asset in communicating my work to improve our economy.”

Ms. McMahon is a native of Warren and has held previous positions at the Mahoning Valley Organizing Collaborative, Wick Neighbors, and the City of Warren. She is a graduate of the University of the Pennsylvania and received her master’s degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

“I am very much looking forward to working with Congressman Ryan,” stated Ms. McMahon.

“There is no greater champion for the future of the 17th

Congressional District – and, indeed, all of Northeastern Ohio. It is an honor for me to be a part of Team Ryan.”
